Put safety eyes between R35 and R36, 7sts apart

If you want to embroider around the eyes, you can do it now.

Use pins to define the position of the eyes. When you are ready, place the safety eyes.

They might look a bit big at the moment, but later it will look just perfect.

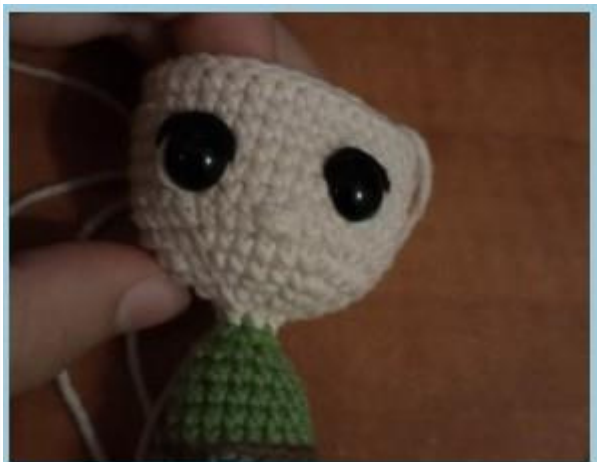

For example, here is how they look with and without embroidery.

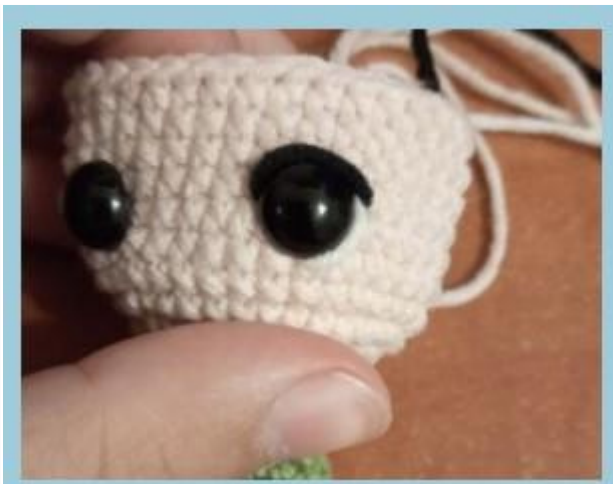

Start by placing black and white threads as shown.

Cross them like this.

It should look like this.
Repeat for the other eye.

This is optional, but you can also embroider a nose using some skin colored yarn.

Continue crocheting

R40: [sc4, dec] x6 (30)

R41: [sc3, dec] x6 (24)

R42: [sc2, dec] x6 (18)

Finish and leave a long tail for sewing.

Make 2. Attach arm to the body

While sewing, make sure that the thumbs (bobbles) are pointing forward!

HAIR

With a 1.7mm hook

Use white/very light yellow colour.

Mine was: ch30, turn, sc29 (29) x9

To make sure you get the best result, compare this strand to the body. It should reach dolls waist.

To prevent this (a big curl), try working looser and stretch each strand after you crochet it

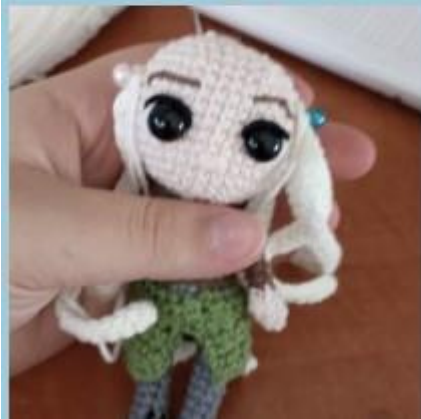

And it will look like this.

You will notice that the strands start to curl again after you leave them, but don't worry. You can stretch them a few more times, but after we sew them on, they will stop curling

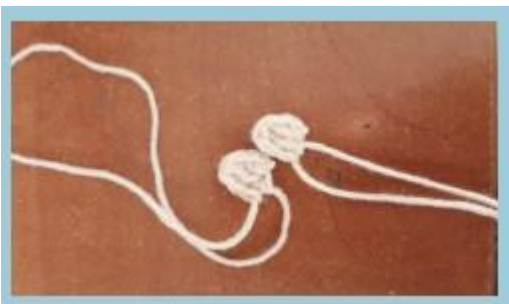

Make 9 strands(This should be enough to cover the head with hair. If not, crochet more strands)
Again, you can make more or less strands than I did, just make sure that when you pin the hair like this, there is a lot of space between the hair and the eye

(We are not going to sew the hair here, this is just for the measuring purposes!)
Cut the yarn and leave the wig aside for a second

EARS

We are now going to make a pair of elvish ears, but won't sew them on yet. We will add them at some point while adding hair. (I will let you know)

These are elvish ears. So, if you think they aren't pointy enough, you can pinch them. If it is still not pointy, you can ch1 before tr. Working loosely will also help making it the right shape.

R1: in MR: sc, hdc, tr, ch2, sc, cut the yarn. Make 2

Now, sew the hair on:

Pull the tail through the top of each strand

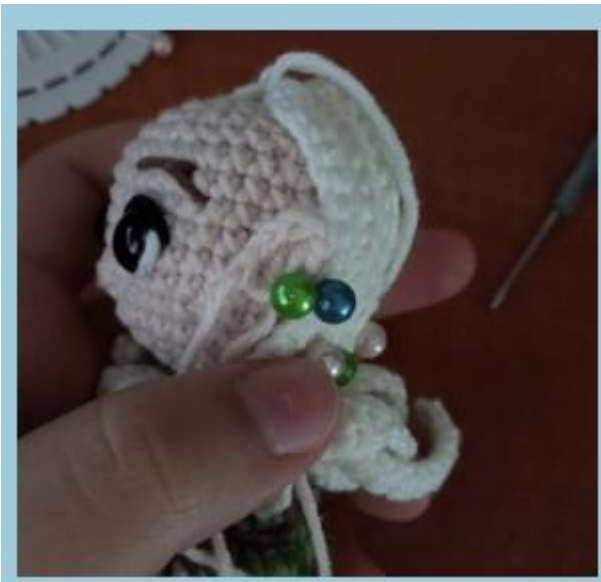

Pull. Make a small knot

Sew the hair on top of the head

Pin each of them down

Then pin the ears 4sts away from the eyes on each side

Readjust the first hair strand to make it look like it has been tucked behind the ear (repeat on the other side as well)

Sew the ear down (repeat on the other side as well)

Then stitch each hair strand to the chin level

(This step is optional) stitch each of the strands together to reduce the bald spots

This is from the front

Now, prepare an additional strand:

ch23, sc2, sl, sc23, sc21, sl in the very first ch

Sew it above his forehead

Pin it above the ear

And then leave the rest hanging

Sew it down.

Additionally, you can add some braids if you like:

CUTE CO PATTERNS

(These are just some long chains)

Sew them like this:

Tie the braids like this and hide the tails

QUIVER

Use brown yarn and a 1.7mm hook

R1: sc6 in MR (6)

R2: [sc, inc] x3 (9)

R3: [sc2, inc] x3 (12)

R4-9: sc12 (12) (6 rounds)

To make the shoulder strap, ch25

And then sl in the bottom

CUTE CO PATTERNS

Cut the yarn and hide the tail

Put it over his shoulder:

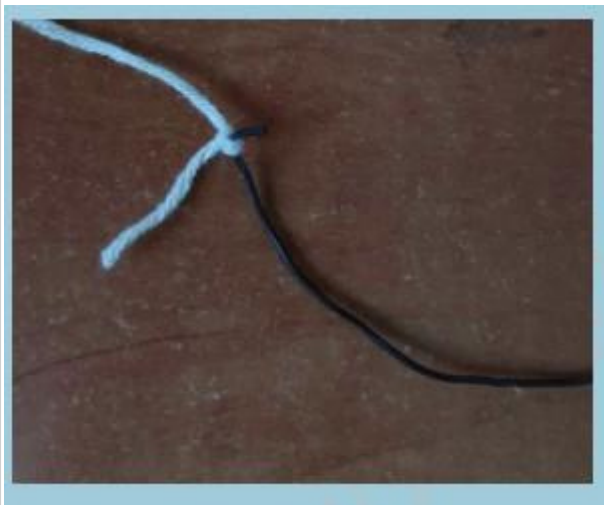

BOW AND ARROW

These pieces are made out of wire, but you will also need some beige, some brown and some grey yarn The wire you will use for the bow should be around the height of your doll.

The wire for the arrow should be around 7cm (a bit less than 3 inches) First, bend a long piece of wire like this:

Then, use beige yarn and tie it like this:

And on the other side as well:

Bend the wire to secure the yarn:

If you want, you can put a few drops of glue to secure the yarn even more I glue the tails down like this:

Then wrap the rest of it in brown yarn

The bow is done!

To make the arrow, use a shorter wire and stretch it out like so:

You can either wrap it or crochet over it; I did a couple of sc

Secure the ends by bending the wire, just like you did with the bow

Decorate the arrow. I just wrapped the ends with yarn

Done!

Congratulations, your Legolas is done! Remember to tag me if you post him in social media!
